

Brightness is just who you are

In this picture book from Lupita Nyong'o, Sulwe takes a magical journey that opens her eyes to the light within her; she discovers what makes her special and beautiful. Invite readers to find their light by drawing a picture or writing something that makes them feel special about themselves on the stars included in this kit. Encourage them to start their answers with "I shine when..."

Cut out and hang the stars to create a constellation—a reminder for all to love themselves and let their light shine for everybody!
